

K A R E N

L O V E N G U T H

Is Nahuatl for a little green wild plant that comes alive with the first rains ,

The townspeople translate it into spanish as :

donde se reverdezca

or where the green returns once again .

Karen Lovenguth

Was born in USA in 1966. At 16 she discovered ceramics and has been working in clay ever since. Her formal studies started in the United States in upstate New York at Syracuse University where she earned a Bachelor of Arts degree at the Maxwell School of Political Science in 1987. After graduation she left the United States and traveled to France, first in the city of Strasbourg enrolling at the Ecole Supérieure des Arts Décoratifs, and then onto Paris for more than a year continuing her clay work in a private studio.

In 1989, Berlin became a more permanent home for almost four years, living and working in Kreuzberg and the Bilderhauer Werkstatt in Wedding.

She came to Mexico for the first time with her young family in 1992 with the opportunity of building her private ceramic studio and kilns nestled close to the mountains in the countryside where she has been working full time for the last 25 years.

The artist has been exhibited in various individual as well as collective exhibitions in Tepoztlán as well as in Mexico City. She has been chosen for various biennials including the Franz Mayer Museum in Mexico City as well as the Icheon World Ceramic Center in the Republic of Korea.

Her work can be found in public collections in China at the Sanbao Ceramic Museum in Jingdezhen, in Korea in the World Ceramic Exposition Foundation collections, as well as in various private collections in France, United States, China and Mexico.
